

Notice Informing Individuals About Nondiscrimination and Accessibility Requirements

Discrimination is Against the Law

The New York Heart Center complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. The New York Heart Center does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

The New York Heart Center:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)
- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters
 - Information written in other languages

If you need these services, contact our Civil Rights Coordinator David J. Gorra

If you believe that The New York Heart Center has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with: Civil Rights Coordinator David J.
